Detailed Review Summary of Snow Mountain Passage by James ...

Am reading Richard Rhodes' The Ungodly now for the first time, after reading Rarick's new history of the event, Vardis Fisher's The Mothers, and Houston's Snow Mountain Passage. The history is excellent, if a bit detached, and Rhodes' novel is an interesting approach that wears thin as it violates the rules of civilized accounting for history.

Book Review - Snow Mountain Passage by James D. Houston ...

Snow Mountain Passage reads like a suspense thriller, even though the reader knows the outcome of the journey and the people who undertook it. Thanks to one of Reed's descendants and his own great skill as an author, Houston is able to weave the story together by alternating Reed's search for a rescue party and Patty's memoir.
